

SCOOTERS and SUPERCARS DAY AT THE PETERSEN

Saturday, July 9, 2011

10 a.m. - 2 p.m.

Celebrate two extremes of personal transportation at the Petersen Automotive Museum!

Event will be held on the third level (covered) of the Petersen parking structure. Open to all scooters and exotic or high-performance sports cars.

* Pre-registration is $15 per vehicle and includes free parking for the vehicle and admission for two (2) to the Museum. Vehicle registration form on reverse.

EVENT HIGHLIGHTS

- * Public show of scooters and supercars from all over Southern California. Admission to show included with Museum general admission.
- * The latest scooters from Piaggio and Vespa, and supercars from The Auto Gallery Los Angeles on display.
- * Vintage soundtrack for the show provided by Marv Mack of Soulside Productions and Mark Morales of Hot Shot Sound System.
- * Two feature exhibitions, Supercars: When Too Much is Almost Enough and Scooters: Size Doesn't Always Matter, on view inside the museum.
- * Technical sessions throughout the day with Griot's Garage car care products, the official car care product provider of the Petersen Automotive Museum. Get your product questions answered and see how to care for and protect your vehicle!
